Hello Sandra,
How are you? I'm fine. I've got some news about my sister Anna. She's gone to the USA to Denver, Colorado, as an exchange student. She is living with an American family and attends a local high school there. Her host parents have two daughters, one is older than Anna and the other one is younger. Every morning they go to school together by bus. Anna is enjoying her stay a lot and says her English has improved a great deal. Anyway, I miss her very much because she is my only sister. Now we keep in touch using the Internet, but it's not the same.
What's up with you? When will you eventually come over for a visit? Due to Anna's absence you can use her bedroom and feel at home with us. When could you come? Write soon.
Love, Eliza.
