Mystery illness

At the Cornish school 450 pupils are sick. They were all absent from school yesterday. People say that there is a mystery illness in the area. The illness is like flu. The symptoms include: a high temperature, runny nose, sore throat, stomach ache and a headache.

It is said that pupils will soon be all right, but experts are trying to find out the cause of the problem and are talking to the children's parents and the school nurse. Everybody is surprised that almost half of the 1,000 pupils at Fowey Community College are suffering from this illness.

The children did not have to go to hospital and it is hoped they will get better in a few days. Health bosses say they expect the problem was a "common virus". Eight school staff were also infected.
