III. Reading comprehension

Lots of tourists visit the two famous English cities – London and Oxford. London offers many interesting sights, such as the Tower, the London Eye, the Houses of Parliament, St. Paul's Cathedral, Buckingham Palace and various amazing museums and parks. Oxford is famous for its university, architecture, great history and its old car factory. The University of Oxford is the oldest university in the United Kingdom and in the English-speaking world.

Nowadays, the two cities have become even more attractive thanks to Harry Potter tours. The Harry Potter movies were filmed in different parts of Britain. However, some places every Harry Potter fan must see are located in London and Oxford.

As for Oxford, the main attraction is Christ Church College, where the stairs to the Great Hall and Hogwarts dining room were filmed. Other Oxford attractions are its beautiful parks, used for the scenes in Hogwarts gardens, and the building which served as the hospital wing in the movies.

In London, King's Cross station is a must. Although platform 9¾ does not really exist, it's good to see platforms 4 and 5 where Harry Potter and his friends leaving for Hogwarts were filmed. Walking around London's streets Harry Potter fans will easily recognize places used in the movies such as Diagon Alley or Gringott's Bank.

For all Harry Potter fans, visiting Oxford and London will certainly be an unforgettable adventure and a unique occasion to experience magic.
