

13. There's litter everywhere because picked up for ages.

- A) they didn't B) it hasn't been
 C) they haven't been D) it hasn't

14. I must a complaint about poor service here.

- A) do B) make C) take D) get

II. Vocabulary and communication

15. Oh no, it's again! It's so wet everywhere

- A) pouring B) raining
 C) pissing down D) filling

16. A person is someone who wants more than they need.

- A) honest B) greedy C) stubborn D) reliable

17. I need some cheese to put on my spaghetti.

- A) scrambled B) boiled C) fried D) grated

18. A works in a court.

- A) referee B) judge C) juror D) barrister

19. A: How can I cut down on my household bills?

B:

- A) I'd use less electricity if I were you. B) You must use too much electricity.
 C) You should save electricity. D) I won't use electricity at all.

20. A newspaper with small pages, a lot of pictures and short sensational articles is called a newspaper.

- A) quality B) taboo C) tabloid D) broadsheet

21. This road sign says that you turn left.

- A) aren't allowed to B) can't
 C) don't allow to D) mustn't

22. A: Take care!

B:

- A) I'll take it. B) Don't worry, I will.
 C) Yes, I do. D) I don't care.

23. We waited for the meeting to to an end. It was so boring.

- A) come B) reach C) arrive D) stop

III. Reading comprehension

If you go to India, begin your holiday in New Delhi, the nation's capital.

As a first-time visitor, you can expect to be shocked by your first impressions of this fascinating city. The noisy mixture of car horns and street sellers loudly advertising their goods, as well as the sight of children begging at the traffic lights, often puts tourists off. New Delhi is rich in historic sights. One of the most famous of these is the Red Fort, where you can visit the bazaar at the entrance and gaze at the beautiful red sandstone architecture of the fort itself. If you want a break from sightseeing, visit Cannaught Place. In this shopping centre, you can buy beautiful clothes in the many boutiques or have a delicious meal in one of the restaurants.

When you have tired yourself out exploring New Delhi, you can spend the second half of your holiday in Goa. Don't forget to head for sunny Palolem Beach, as this is the ideal spot for enjoying the spectacular Goan sunset. The beach is on a quiet island, so you will have a peaceful time there. There are a number of sanctuaries around the resort, where you can see lions and snakes. You can even have an elephant ride. Enjoy your holiday in India.

(Adapted from: V. Evans, N. O'Sullivan 'Click on' Express Publishing)

24. In New Delhi tourists can be put off by

- A) begging children B) the Red Fort
 C) noisy drivers D) pushy street sellers

25. Cannaught Place is the best place for

- A) sightseeing B) shopping
 C) eating D) admiring the wildlife

26. Wybierz prawdziwe zdania.

- A) There are a lot of old buildings in New Delhi.
 B) The bazaar outside the Red Fort is made of sandstone.
 C) Palolem Beach is the perfect place to get a tan.
 D) You can get close to wild animals in Goa.