III. Reading comprehension

Norman is fourteen years old. He's a student. He goes to a secondary school. He has lessons at school from nine o'clock to half past four.

Norman lives in a flat in New Malden. It's a small town in the suburbs of London. His flat is on the second floor. He lives with his parents, two sisters and grandmother. The flat is quite large. There is a kitchen, a dining-room, five bedrooms, a living-room, two bathrooms and a toilet. There isn't a garden but there is a balcony.

Norman works as a paper boy. He delivers newspapers to houses in New Malden.

He starts work at six thirty. He delivers newspapers every day except Sunday. He works in the mornings before school, and in the afternoons after school. He usually finishes work at quarter past five. Then he comes back home and does his homework.

Norman likes this job. He gets a lot of exercise, and the money is really good. He earns 110 pounds a week. He doesn't need pocket money from his parents. Norman's sisters get 10 pounds pocket money once a week.

Norman is saving his money in the bank at the moment. He wants to spend next summer holidays in Italy and learn Italian.
