Jim is fourteen years old. He lives in Sunderland in the north-east of England. He lives in a flat with his parents and sister. His brother is twenty-two and he went to the United States to study at Harvard University. Jim's father is a chef. He works in a hotel at the seaside. Jim's mother is a nurse. She looks after sick people in a hospital. Jim's little sister is called Kate. She's only nine.

Jim goes to a secondary school. His favourite subject is Geography. He also likes Maths and Spanish. He hates History and Biology. After school he loves listening to music, playing computer games, playing football and volleyball. He often rides a bike with his friend, Mark, along the cliff. They are both keen on sports. Jim likes classical music and jazz. He doesn't like pop music or rap.

Jim's flat is on the first floor. The flat is by the sea. Their flat is quite big. There is a kitchen, a living room, four bedrooms, two bathrooms and a toilet. There isn't a garden or a garage but there is a balcony. Jim and his parents love sitting on the balcony watching ships, fishing boats and yachts.
